Since 2004 the MidWest Renegades Equestrian Drill Team from Woodstock, Illinois has been dedicated to providing quality entertainment for their audiences while keeping the fun in riding. The group consists of riders from different riding disciplines and experience levels riding a wide variety of horse breeds. They perform at rodeos, county fairs, horse shows, parades, charitable benefits and drill team competitions. Members range from age 7 to over 50 years of age. Each rider strives to reflect their mission statement: The Pride is in the Ride!

The Midwest Renegades are composed of three teams: the original "Renegades" (competition team); the "Renegade Dirt Devils" (youth team); and the "Renegade Dare Devils" (trick-riding team). Performances include rodeos, special events, local horse shows, and competitions. Our riders learn more about team unity, discipline, confidence, communication and how to adapt to quickly changing circumstances.
